

KENMARE

Kenmare on the sea is known as the jewel in the Ring of Kerry and no wonder with its location between two of the most beautiful touring routes in Europe - the Ring of Kerry and the Ring of Beara. These make for very enjoyable day trips from Kenmare. Being one of Ireland's Heritage Towns, Kenmare offers a huge selection of places of historical interest to visit. Even strolling around the town is itself a pleasure with Kenmare having received awards from Entente Floral and the award for the Tidiest Town in Ireland in the year 2000.

Killarney is just over 40 minutes away and Cork City is just over an hour's drive.

DINING & NIGHTLIFE

The town of Kenmare, noted for having the cleanest air in Europe, is a mecca for some of the finest restaurants in Ireland. You really will be spoilt for choice when it comes to dining out, from bar food to seafood and a range of other types of excellent restaurants to experience. The nightlife in Kenmare suits all ages and the hospitality with which you will be greeted is second to none.

There is a fantastic selection of pubs and late night bars to choose from with many featuring live music from traditional Irish to rock and modern styles.

Truly the ideal choice for your holiday, both in terms of the style of accommodation and Kenmare being the perfect location, Sunnyhill Holiday Homes are located just a five minute stroll from Kenmare Town Centre. Built in 2000, these semi-detached houses are perched on a site overlooking Kenmare and its surrounding hills and mountains.

Each house has its own private garden with patio furniture - the perfect setting from which to enjoy the tranquillity of the countryside and the breathtaking scenery for which Kenmare is world-renowned.

ACCOMMODATION

There are both three and four bed roomed options at Sunnyhill Holiday Homes. Each two storey house has been designed to the very highest standard with guests needs to the fore, combining both luxury and practicality.

- The spacious lounge is tastefully furnished and contains a cozy suite of furniture, Satellite Colour TV and Electric Fireplace.
- The open plan kitchen/dining area has a sunny aspect and plenty of space. The kitchen is fully fitted and stocked with all the modern conveniences including electric cooker, fridge/freezer, dishwasher, washer/dryer and microwave. All necessary kitchen utensils and crockery are provided.

- Upstairs a spacious landing leads to the bedrooms. The three bedroomed options consist of one double bedroom ensuite and two twin bedrooms with a separate bathroom. The four bedroomed houses consist of one double bedroom ensuite, one twin bedroom and two single bedrooms. Each bedroom has more than adequate storage space.

- Secure private parking is available for each house. The Holiday Homes are heated by electric central heating with storage heaters in each room. All bed linen and towels are provided. Electricity is an extra charge and is payable on departure.

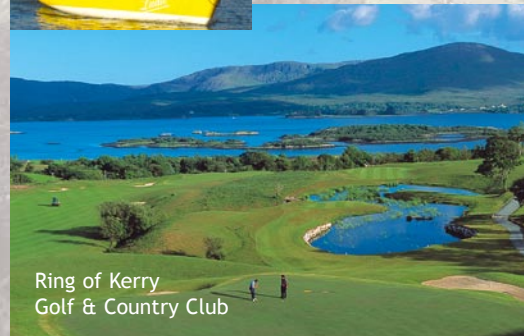

LOCAL ACTIVITIES

Kenmare lies approximately 30 minutes drive from a host of sandy beaches and it has a very pretty harbour from where you can swim, fish or take a trip on the 'Seafari Cruise' to view the wildlife in the area.

Star Sailing & Adventure Centre

This is a wonderful new addition to Kenmare. The centre is situated on the shores of Kenmare Bay and surrounded by the Caha Mountains just a 5 minute drive from Kenmare Town. www.staroutdoors.ie

Ring of Kerry Golf & Country Club

Pony Trekking

Pony Trekking is the ideal way to explore the hidden treasures of Kenmare and its hinterland. There are a number of centres available locally.

Angling

There are lots of great fishing spots to choose from around Kenmare including Clonee Lake, Kenmare Bay and the Black Valley. Permits can be obtained locally.

Hill Walking

The Kerry Way and Beara Way are ideal for those with an interest in trekking. The foothills of the famous MacGillycuddy Reeks are right on Kenmare's doorstep.

Golf

Kenmare boasts two super golf courses. The Ring of Kerry Golf Course located two miles outside of the town offers spectacular views of Kenmare Bay from the course and from its Club House. Special discounted green fees for Dream Ireland guests. www.ringofkerrygolf.com. Kenmare Golf Club is located in Kenmare Town and follows the shores of Kenmare Bay Estuary.

Diving

Kenmare and its vicinity offers some incredible dive spots and wrecks. You may even be lucky enough to come across a dolphin or two. Try-dives are available for beginners and advanced dives for the more experienced. www.kenmarebaydiving.com

Other activities in the area include quad-biking, pet farms, craft workshops and bicycle hire.
